“So You Want To Be A Fiduciary” with David B. Walters, Esq.

David B. Walters, Esq is a partner with Bodman, LLP and has extensive experience in all aspects of employee benefits and executive compensation law. His experience includes designing, drafting, implementing and counseling clients regarding tax qualified pension, profit sharing and employee stock ownership plans. He has also consulted with clients regarding compliance issues as they arise with respect to the operation of employee pension benefit plans. In the area of welfare plans, he has assisted clients in designing and operating various health and welfare plans and fringe benefit programs. In addition, Dave has prepared various non-qualified deferred compensation arrangements including deferred compensation plans and equity based incentive programs. He has also represented employers and employees in the negotiation and drafting of executive employment and severance agreements.

Dave is a member of the ABA Taxation Section, Employee Benefits Committee. He is currently the chairperson of the Employee Benefits Committee, Tax Section, of the State Bar of Michigan. He is a former chairperson of the Detroit Bar Association Taxation Committee. Dave is an active member of the Great Lakes Area TE/GE Council. He has also authored several articles involving qualified plan issues.

Dave is a graduate of the University of Detroit School of Law, where he earned his JD in 1984. He earned his BS degree from Central Michigan University in 1981.
